

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Mayersville Resident Wins Statewide Home Care Recognition

The Mississippi Association for Home Care (MAHC) is proud to announce that Terri Williams of Mayersville, Mississippi has received statewide recognition as the recipient of the 2017 Home Health Aide of the Year Award.

Ms. Williams works for Continue Care Home Health Rolling Fork as a home health aide. She has been working as a home health aide since 1992. As noted in her nomination by Rachel Woods, RN, Williams' commitment to her patients makes her stand out while always providing for them in ways that are not required of her. She shines as witness to them with her encouraging words and kind heart.

The Home Health Aide of the Year award is one of MAHC's most prestigious awards. The award recognizes the value of the home health aide to the home care industry and to the patients that they serve. Home Health aides are the backbone of the home health care delivery system and are vital to patient care.

The Mississippi Association for Home Care is a non-profit membership organization dedicated to operating for the benefit of member home health agencies, home health related agencies and the benefit of the public in fostering and maintaining high standards of home health care.

For more information, contact Mary Lea Nations, Executive Director of MAHC at 601-924-2275, or mnations@mahc.org.

Becky Knight, MAHC President presents award to Terri Williams of Mayersville, MS at Continue Care Home Health Rolling Fork on April 26, 2017.