

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Bridgette Powell Recognized as Mississippi's Home Health Aide of the Year

The Mississippi Association for Home Care (MAHC) is proud to announce that Bridgette Powell of Lexington, Mississippi has received statewide recognition as the recipient of the Home Health Aide of the Year Award.

Powell has proven to be an invaluable asset in the short time she has worked in healthcare and AccentCare. Said to be the bright light in others day, patients speak highly of her while co-workers often comment on how she goes above and beyond to care for patients. Covering two large counties in Mississippi, still managing to give quality one on one time to all her patients.

The Home Health Aide of the Year award is one of MAHC's most prestigious awards. The award recognizes the value of the home health aide to the home care industry and to the patients that they serve. Home Health aides are the backbone of the home health care delivery system and are vital to patient care.

The Mississippi Association for Home Care is a non-profit membership organization dedicated to operating for the benefit of member home health agencies, home health related agencies and the benefit of the public in fostering and maintaining high standards of home health care.
