

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Grenada Resident Wins Statewide Home Care Recognition

The Mississippi Association for Home Care (MAHC) is proud to announce that Lurin Campbell of Grenada, Mississippi has received statewide recognition as the recipient of the 2014 Home Health Aide of the Year Award.

Ms. Campbell has worked as a home health aide at Sta-Home for ten years. As noted by her supervisors, Campbell is very professional, attentive and diligent in the performance of her duties. She is said to have a calming effect on her patients, while going above and beyond to give them the utmost care.

The Home Health Aide of the Year award is one of MAHC's most prestigious awards. The award recognized the value of the home health aide to the home care industry and to the patients that they serve. Home Health aides are the backbone of the home health care delivery system and are vital to patient care.

The Mississippi Association for Home Care is a non-profit membership organization dedicated to operating for the benefit of member home health agencies, home health related agencies and the benefit of the public in fostering and maintaining high standards of home health care.
