

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Hattiesburg Resident Wins Statewide Home Care Recognition

The Mississippi Association for Home Care (MAHC) is proud to announce that Robert “Scott” Nelson, RN, BSN of Hattiesburg, Mississippi has received statewide recognition as the recipient of the 2021 J.T. Gilbert Clinical Award.

Nelson has worked for Forrest General Home Care for twenty-four years where he has held numerous positions. Currently as a telehealth nurse, he patiently and diligently educates each patient of their processes, medications, and preventions. Nelson is said to truly go above and beyond, preventing rehospitalizations and genuinely maintaining the utmost care for his patients.

The J.T. Gilbert Clinical Award was established in 1991 to honor all professional clinical disciplines that work in the home health field. The criteria are specific that the individuals nominated must be involved in direct patient care and must demonstrate excellence in the home care field.

The Mississippi Association for Home Care is a non-profit membership organization dedicated to operating for the benefit of member home health agencies, home health related agencies and the benefit of the public in fostering and maintaining high standards of home health care.
