

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Mississippi Nurse Wins Statewide Home Care Recognition

The Mississippi Association for Home Care (MAHC) is proud to announce that Pam Johnson, RN has received statewide recognition as the recipient of the J.T. Gilbert Clinical Award. Johnson has worked with CenterWell Home Health Booneville branch since 1996, extending top notch quality care from the very start.

Johnson is described as having a true servant's heart. Always the first to offer help to anyone, always seeking opportunities to serve others.

The J.T. Gilbert Clinical Award was established in 1991 to honor all professional clinical disciplines that work in the home health field. The criteria are specific that the individuals nominated must be involved in direct patient care and must demonstrate excellence in the home care field.

The Mississippi Association for Home Care is a non-profit membership organization dedicated to operating for the benefit of member home health agencies, home health related agencies and the benefit of the public in fostering and maintaining high standards of home health care.

For more information, contact Mary Lea Nations, Executive Director of MAHC at 601-924-2275, or mnations@mahc.org.
